

DRIVING IN CANADA

[November 2018]

Start here for general information from the Government of Canada.

Arrive with a drivers' history (from your local council and insurance provider) and your Irish drivers' license.

Each province regulates its own licensing. Note that some provinces (Ontario, BC, Manitoba, and Newfoundland and Labrador) have reciprocal agreements with Ireland—visit the link to your province (below) to find out more.

- Alberta
- British Columbia
- Manitoba
- New Brunswick
- Newfoundland and Labrador
- Northwest Territories
- Nova Scotia
- Nunavut
- Ontario
- Prince Edward Island
- Quebec
- Saskatchewan
- Yukon

See some Winter Driving Tips here from our friends at Moving2Canada.